LABOR BUREAU PREDICTS DROP IN PRICES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics believes there will be a decline in retail prices of food this coming fall. In forecast the bureau says that wholesale prices dropped an average of slightly more than 1 percent in the last thirty days. Meats, fish and vegetables now are stored in quantities far greater than one year ago.

Bumper crops of wheat and other cereals are in prospect—in fact, are partly harvested in the Southwest, and farm labor is plentiful except in a few sections.

Luxury tax receipts are falling off, showing the stampede has stopped at stores selling luxuries, including automobiles, diamonds and extravagant clothing. Reduction in luxury buying is a certain indication, government officials say, that the nation is awake of extravagance has passed.

An end of luxury buying means "exit the profiteers," officials say. Candy merchants all over the United States are complaining of a dropping off of business. The sale is classed as "good," indicating that the public is consuming much candy, but not so much as formerly.

Candy merchants were preparing for a big summer and winter business. They bought heavily of sugar at inflated prices. Now many are petitioning the Department of Justice for licenses to sell sugar, which they declare they have in unnecessary quantities.

"We are glad to issue these licenses," said Assistant Attorney General Figg. "Sales of surplus sugar by candy dealers should tend to reduce prices."

Big reductions have been forced in wholesale prices of materials like cotton, crude rubber, leather and steel. Although these do not affect directly the average consumer, they nevertheless have an effect on general commodity prices, officials say. Prices of crude rubber and leather recently reached pre-war levels.

ROOSEVELT ADDRESSES NORTH DAKOTA DEMOCRATS

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 19.—In his first address in North Dakota, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Vice President, said here Monday that the Democratic party is victorious pledges itself to "seek a solution of the problems that will serve the best interests of the producer and the great consuming public."

"I am particularly glad to read that the 'porch' campaign of the Republicans is breaking down," Mr. Roosevelt said, "and that Senator Harding has now condescended to make five whole speeches away from home."

"The theory of the Democratic campaign is, of course, just the contrary. Our candidates are trying not merely to carry the campaign to the country, but to find out what the country is thinking."

"This difference in attitude of mind extends to the way in which the leaders of the two parties handle all public questions. The Democratic theory is that big national problems ought to be settled from a national point of view, and ought not to be undertaken by a mere gathering in Washington of half a dozen old line leaders who do not know the country and who represent the kind of things that Penrose, of Pennsylvania, Lodge, of Massachusetts, Root, of New York, and others of that group advocate, who were in control of the Chicago convention, and who would be in control of your government if a Republican President is elected."

"For instance, you people out here have long been concerned with the problem of food production and marketing. You appreciate, I hope, the danger of the control of this question by men who are friends of the packers, by friends of big bankers and by friends of the Eastern middlemen. A solution by them will bring you back to conditions of ten or fifteen years ago."

"The Democratic party is controlled by no such gang. If elected, we pledge ourselves to seek a solution of the problems that will serve the best interests of the producers, and the great consuming public, and two after all who are vitally concerned."

"There is no question that the farmer does not get to-day what he ought to get, and there is no question, also, that the consumer pays too much. Somewhere in between the two are steps which must be eliminated—our transportation problems, marketing problems and warehouse problems."

"Are you going to trust a leadership of reaction, or are you going to trust what is to-day the party of progress? I would not be a Democrat unless I was sure that progress in this year of 1920 is spelt Democracy."

ARMED MEN HOLD UP LOAD OF WHISKY

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—A motor truck loaded with whisky was held up by four armed men near Fullerton, Md., and 125 cases of the liquor carried off in another truck by the robbers, according to the driver of the looted truck, Walter Sklon of Newark.

Later four men were arrested here charged with larceny of the liquor, which was the property of the Zucker-Steiner Company of Newark. The police said that three cases of the whisky had been recovered.

Sklon, accompanied by a negro helper, was on his way to Newark from Baltimore with the whisky when his machine became disabled near Fullerton.

When the train came in back in 1910

TEN years ago you might have seen one or two automobiles waiting outside the station, when the weather was pleasant.

Today the square is crowded with them. And most of the cars you generally see there are moderate-price cars.

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

There is one tire, at least, that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality—the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

JAMES McCLURE, ETC.,

ON PETITION

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of a judgment and order of sale rendered at the June term, 1920, of the Bourbon Circuit Court in the above styled action therein pending, the undersigned Master Commissioner, on Saturday, Aug. 21, 1920,

ON THE PREMISES,

At about the hour of 11 a. m., will sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder the following described property:

A lot on Main street, in the City of Paris 66 feet 8 inches front on Main Street, and running back the same width — of Laurel street, 186 feet, more or less, to High street, being bounded on the East by said Laurel street, on the West by a lot of Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan and being the same property conveyed to Emily Parker by Jas. M. Thomas by deed recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Bourbon County Court, in Deed Book 64, page 545; said deed being dated June 15th, 1880.

But there is excepted from the above boundary so much thereof as was conveyed to T. M. Funk by Emily Parker, etc., by deed of record in said office in Deed Book 104, page 471 and therein described as follows:

Beginning at a point where first and second parties' line corners to High street, Paris, Kentucky; thence with margin of said street as it meanders in a Northerly direction 15 feet; thence in a Southerly direction 105 feet to a point in the division line of the first and second parties.

Said sale will be made upon the credits of six and twelve months, the purchaser or purchasers being required to execute their two bonds with good and approved surety for one-half of the purchase money, each due six and twelve months from date of sale until paid.

The net share of the infant (1-16) shall remain a lien upon the property until the infant's guardian qualifies and executes bond as required by law, or until said infant becomes twenty-one years of age, and so much of the purchase money as represents the infant's share will draw interest at six per cent. (6%) from date until paid.

Said sale is made for the purpose of settling the estate of the decedent, and for a division of the proceeds among the parties interested.
